Invitation

2010 World Summit on Human Rights for World Citizens on April 1

The Responsibility of World Citizens for the Human Rights Development for World Citizens

In the celebration of the 9th anniversary of World Citizenship Day in Taiwan, the UN/NGO Association of World Citizens will hold the 2010 World Summit on Human Rights for World Citizens. Global elites are invited to contribute to the international issues of human rights for world citizens. Papers on the four main topics of Respect, Law, Taxation, and Environment will be collected and compiled during the conference proceedings. Professionals from different fields are encouraged to explore human rights practices in Taiwan and compare them against practices in other countries. The goal is to promote the concept of human rights of world citizens and to develop responsible and positive world citizenship.

Date : April 1st, 2010 (Thursday)
Time : 1:30pm ~ 4:35pm
Venue : Y17 Taipei Youth Activity Center (6F, No.17 Ren Ai Road, Taipei)
