NTU Study Abroad Fair - Best Booth Competition

I. Objective: To recognize the exhibitor who presents the most engaging booth in the “NTU Study Abroad Fair” with creativity, communication and teamwork skills, the Office of International Affairs (OIA) is now holding the Best Booth Competition. All NTU degree students (including international degree students) to the fair will participate in the exit poll for feedback on the Study Abroad Fair. The selecting criteria will include the information you provide, the display of your booth, and the booth personnel’s presentation. The top three booths will be announced as winners of the competition in the end of the Study Abroad Fair.

II. Time to Vote: 11am- 2:30 pm, Nov. 15 (Mon), 2010

III. Judging: All NTU degree students (including international degree students) to the fair have the right to vote. Up to three selections can be made on each ballot. Each student cannot vote more than once. Students who work in the booth are not eligible to vote.

IV. Award Giving: By the end of the fair, we will count the votes and announce the winners of the competition. The award-giving ceremony will be held on 3 pm on Nov. 15, 2010.

V. Note:
1. Each booth is automatically registered as one unit, and each booth represents one group. OIA reserves the right to substitute the prizes and amend the rules.
2. Booth which is held by off-campus units cannot be voted.
3. The winning booths will also be featured on the OIA website on the next day of the competition.
4. OIA retains the right to amend the rules or discontinue the competition at any time.

VI. Prize (OIA reserves the right to substitute the prizes for other prizes of equal value):

First Prize: 5,000 NTD  Second Prize: 3,000 NTD  Third Prize: 2,000 NTD

N.B.: The members of each booth only refer to those who have previously signed up as exhibitor for the Study Abroad Fair; those who sign up on the day of the fair will not be acknowledged.
