Ewha Womans University

Founded in 1886, Ewha Womans University has developed during the past 122 years to become a world-renowned higher educational institution for women. As the largest women's university in the world, Ewha Womans University has produced around 170,000 graduates and currently has 28,000 students studying in 12 colleges and 13 graduate schools. In 2004, Ewha ranked 1st place in the National College Evaluation, 1st place in the Mass Media and Advertisement Area, 2nd place in the Biology and Biotechnology field; and in 2005, Ewha ranked 1st place in the National Customer Satisfaction Index (NCSI) Comprehensive College category, and was selected for three consecutive years in the Universities Specialization Support Project since 2003, boasting its status as one of Korea's top universities.

Office of Global Affairs (OGA)

The Office of Global Affairs (OGA) was founded in 1985 to promote international education exchange programs for students and faculty, and to coordinate international programs at Ewha Womans University. Up until now, the OGA has established formal student and faculty exchange relations with more than 300 institutions in over 36 different countries worldwide. Ewha has also been a member of the International Student Exchange Program (ISEP) since 2001, gaining international access to around 300 institutions around the world. Since its founding, thousands of students have traveled to and from Asia, America, Europe, Oceania, and Africa to study at Ewha and experience Korea first-hand. Experience diversity through Ewha!
The International Exchange and Study Abroad Program

Admissions

Ewha Womans University is accepting applications for its international student exchange programs. All international students are eligible to apply and are required to meet the following requirements:

- Be a full-time undergraduate or graduate student at an accredited university or college
- Have a minimum GPA of 3.0
- Submit official transcripts and a letter of recommendation
- Be enrolled in courses that are equivalent to those offered at Ewha

Course List

- Intensive Korean Language courses are offered each semester
- All courses are taught in English

Accommodations

- On-campus dormitories are available
- Off-campus housing options are also available

Cost

- Tuition: Varies depending on the program
- Housing: Varies depending on the location
- Other fees: Varies depending on the program

Application Deadlines

- Fall Semester: August 15
- Spring Semester: December 10

Eligibility

- Open to students from any accredited institution
- Applicants must meet the eligibility requirements

For more information, please visit the Ewha Womans University website.

---

International Exchange and Study Abroad Program

Admissions

Ewha Womans University is accepting applications for its international student exchange programs. All international students are eligible to apply and are required to meet the following requirements:

- Be a full-time undergraduate or graduate student at an accredited university or college
- Have a minimum GPA of 3.0
- Submit official transcripts and a letter of recommendation
- Be enrolled in courses that are equivalent to those offered at Ewha

Course List

- Intensive Korean Language courses are offered each semester
- All courses are taught in English

Accommodations

- On-campus dormitories are available
- Off-campus housing options are also available

Cost

- Tuition: Varies depending on the program
- Housing: Varies depending on the location
- Other fees: Varies depending on the program

Application Deadlines

- Fall Semester: August 15
- Spring Semester: December 10

Eligibility

- Open to students from any accredited institution
- Applicants must meet the eligibility requirements

For more information, please visit the Ewha Womans University website.