| Accommodation | International House
Most of the exchange students will live in the International House, a 15-minute walk from Bunkyo Campus. The International House is equipped with most daily necessities. |
Service

Tutorship System

The tutorship system is to help exchange students of Nagasaki University lead a comfortable life in Nagasaki and carry out productive study or research. Tutors meet exchange students on a daily basis and, under the instruction of their supervisors, settle exchange students’ problems associated with study or research and daily life. Exchange students will be provided with a tutor for one semester or one year. Some tutors live in the International House and support residents there regarding all sorts of matters.

Pick-up service

Insurance & Visa

National Health Insurance

Exchange students staying in Japan for one semester or a year are required to enroll in the Japanese National Health Insurance Program. Members of this insurance program will be required to pay 30% of medical costs incurred in case of receiving medical treatments at medical institutions outside the university.

Visa

Exchange students need to obtain a college student visa issued by the Japanese Embassy or Consulate in their county of residence. Nagasaki University will apply to the regional Immigration Office for a “Certificate of Eligibility” on behalf of the accepted students. Once the applications have been processed, a “Certificate of Eligibility” will be sent to the student’s home university with a Letter of Acceptance. Show this document as proof of student status, together with your passport and Letter of Acceptance, when applying for a college student visa at the nearest Japanese Embassy or Consulate.
