Approved at the 2828th Meeting of the Administrative Committee Sep. 30, 2014

1. National Taiwan University (hereinafter referred to as the University) has established this Scholarship to facilitate academic research and exchanges with the international community by attracting international master’s students of academic excellence.

2. These regulations are promulgated in accordance with the Ministry of Education Regulations for Subsidizing Universities, Colleges or their Affiliated Mandarin Chinese Language Centers to Establish International Student Scholarships.

3. Eligibility: New international master’s students applying for admission must comply with the Ministry of Education’s Regulations for International Students Undertaking Studies in Taiwan and shall have demonstrated academic excellence and outstanding research achievements.

4. Number of Awardees: Eight in total every year. The actual number is subject to fund availability and the annual budget.

5. Amount of the Scholarship: Every awardee will be granted TWD 250,000 (inclusive of tuition) every year while enrolled in the University, for a maximum of two years.

6. How to Apply: Application for the Scholarship shall be submitted to the Office of International Affairs (OIA) together with the applicant’s admission application to the University.

7. Application Evaluation: Applications shall be evaluated by the Office of Research and Development (ORD). Criteria for evaluation shall include academic performance, research motivation, potentials, enthusiasm and competitiveness.

8. Payment Process: The process shall be handled according to the OIA’s announcement every year.

9. Renewal Eligibility: Recipients of the Scholarship during a given academic year shall turn in their research achievement reports in writing, together with a recommendation letter from their advisors. The ORD shall conduct evaluations to decide the renewal eligibility of Scholarship awardees.

10. In case of a non-renewal decision in line with Article 9, suspension, withdrawal or a termination decision by the college, the Scholarship shall be terminated.

11. The Scholarship shall, in principle, be cancelled for awardees who apply for deferred admission.

12. Scholarship recipients shall not receive any other scholarships sponsored by the University or the ROC government.

13. These Regulations shall take effect upon public announcement after the approval of the Administrative Committee.
